

Reflection Questions for People-Pleasers

What am I afraid might happen if I disappoint someone?

What messages about conflict did you learn growing up?

What is something you wish people understood about you?

Do you feel valued for who you are or for what you do for others?

Are you run by fear or care?

